

How to Write a Cloth Nappy Review

Contributed by Gabrielle Edwards
Last Updated Monday, 03 March 2008

How to Write a Cloth Nappy Review

Nappy Review is always looking for keen Mums (and Dads!) to review the disposable nappy brand that you use every day.

But you're probably thinking 'What do I say?'

Here's some criteria for you to think about when writing your review. And don't forget! Every review receives a FREE SAMPLE of Seventh Generation USA's eco-disposable, chlorine-free nappy. Just include your postal address with your review and we'll send one straight out to you!

Criteria

- Name of cloth brand:
- Features (eg: afix/snap closure, what material is it made of?):
- What type of nappy? (all-in-one, pocket, prefold...):
- Absorbency (is it good for night-time, daytime or both):
- Does it come with lay-in or snap-in boosters or no boosters?:
- Does it require a cover?:
- Price:
- Value-for-money (is it expensive for what you get or reasonably priced for the features of the nappy?: All you have to do now is e-mail your review to us!