

Nappy Review Top Ten

Contributed by Gabrielle Edwards
Last Updated Monday, 03 March 2008

Nappy Review Top Ten

This list of the Top Ten disposable nappy brands has been compiled using the following criteria:

1. Value-for-Money
2. The number of features for the price
3. Look and Feel

The Winner is....Aldi's Mamia Brand! This great quality nappy is soooo cheap but still has all the great features of a premium nappy.

2. Cuties nappies (see Cuties review for where to buy). A bit plainer than Mamia nappies, but still great value.
3. Snugglers - the cheapest and best quality of the supermarket nappies.
4. BabyLove - a bit thicker than Snugglers and a bit more expensive. We really love their Ecobots though!
5. Huggies - great quality but you pay for it. A good nappy if you don't mind paying the premium price. Some people have said the absorbent gel leaks onto baby's bottom.
6. Woolworths Select - Woollie's budget nappy - great value, basic nappy
7. You'll Love Coles brand - Coles Budget nappy - great value, basic nappy.
8. Nature Babycare eco-nappy (from Coles) - expensive, but feels nice, looks nice and is readily available.
9. Moltex Eco - plain, brown-paper look nappy. Great slimness and feel. Same nappy as Seventh Generation, but more eco-friendly and a little bit cheaper and better value-for-money.
10. Seventh Generation eco-nappy - plain, brown-paper look. Great slimness and feel though. A bit harder to find (only available in specialty online stores and health food shops) and the most expensive of the eco-nappies.