We like the fact that Cuties offer exceptional value for money! They are almost identical in look and feel to Snugglers and Huggies which are its nearest competitors. It's worth noting that Huggies are Double A standard (like Cuties) and Snugglers are only A standard. Cuties also have an elasticated back which is great for containing those newborn poos! They also have a wetness indicator. We tested them for absorbency and - no leaks (night-time or daytime)!

The only issue we had was that the nappies have a mild chemical smell from the dying of the woodpulp used in their manufacture, so if you're concerned about that, then that's something to consider. Other Mums say... Where to Buy www.cutiesnappies.com.au
