They have a 'brown paper' look about them because they are entirely unbleached. They are cheaper (by 2 to 7 dollars) than Seventh Generation which is their nearest competitor. We found their absorbency to be excellent!    Other Mums say...    Jen M says,

"Moltex are super absorbent and I am very pleased that my son has never had nappy rash. Moltex fit well across the various sizes and never leak. Best of all they control odour wonderfully. They are a slim design which fits under all types of clothing without adding excessive bulk. I have tried various main-stream brands and I was displeased with the presence of crystals, and therefore chemicals, left on my baby's bottom by such nappies."    Where to Buy
