 - Junior (16kg+) - Convenience 24, Bulk 44, Box 90 Price (AUS Dollars)

1. Convenience - approx. $14.50
2. Bulk - approx. $26
3. Box - approx. ----- Features

* Dryness Layer

* Lock-away cell (contains super-absorbent gel crystals)

* Grip Tabs

* Double Leakage Control Shields

* Soft, cloth-like cover Value-for-Money

The following figures are based on the Bulk Pack price of $26:

1. Small - 36c/nappy
2. Crawler - 37c/nappy
3. Toddler - 40c/nappy
4. Walker - 46c/nappy
5. Junior - 59c/nappy

* A big jump in value-for-money between walker and junior sizes. probably because the Junior bulk pack offers 12 fewer nappies per pack, compared to 2-8 fewer nappies between the other sizes.

* Overall, great value for money though! Nappy Review says... Snugglers and Huggies are made by the same company. Huggies are AA (top grade) and Snugglers are A (second-grade) nappies. Snugglers are marketed as a value nappy because you receive more nappies for less money. However, having tried the nappy, less doesn't always mean more! For one thing, the size of the nappies was smaller on my daughter than other brands. I tried the 10-15kg nappy and it was quite tight around the legs and the grip tab reached almost to the edge of the waistband. Snugglers have a blue inner liner and not as many layers in the nappy. This results in a thinner nappy, but explains why they are cheaper, also! As far as absorbency goes - no complaints! But if your daughter is half-way through her weight range, I'd go up to the next size to provide some comfort, particularly if they have a chubby build. Other Mums say... Where to Buy

Major supermarkets. Department stores such as Big W and K-Mart usually only stock the Bulk, Box and Mega Box sizes Review this brand Click Here if you've used Snugglers and would like to post some comments of your own. (All comments will be moderated before publication) Buy a Sample
