Roxannee from WA says:

"Much cheaper than Huggies (around 32 cents, Huggies is around 37 cents), I like the low cut design and quite regretted that I didn't buy this brand prior to giving birth. Best nappy I have tried so far in terms of value for money. I like the fact that it is low cut, we didn't have to fold the front part of other nappies which could cause wee to leak....baby is dry for a long time, no gel beads sticking into the skin. Can't say much with the dislike part....probably no cute prints as its so plain and white but it doesn't really matter as babies don't know care what is printed on the nappy yeah?"   Where to Buy
